The DIMMER VIEW

'Operation Easy Park'

Business in Lemon Grove has an upbeat.

It has been slow in coming but there are definite signs.

Several previous stirrings have been reversed by recessionary pressures or by the opening of new shopping centers within the influence spectrum of Lemon Grove's business community.

A tip-off regarding current shopping virility was brought into focus last week when approximately ten parking places were removed from public use on Golden avenue.

The loss was occasioned by the need for parking sheriff's cars—mostly the unmarked variety used by detectives. These officers often need to get away on emergency calls. Their effectiveness would be reduced if they had to traverse the distance of a block or two to get to their vehicles. If they are bringing in prisoners or bulky evidence, it serves no useful purpose for them to travel long distances on foot.

But this is about the parking crisis. The sheriff's sequester of the parking spots only illuminates the need of local merchants and other business firms to make plans now against even tighter parking problems.

There are several approaches to solving the parking problem. There is already machinery for that purpose — the Chamber of Commerce. Parking is truly the problem of all elements of commerce. The public, without parking, goes somewhere else to shop. People involved in local business should go to the Chamber of Commerce.

Not so incidental as it might seem is that there is a Chamber meeting next week on Thursday and parking will be one of the items on the board's agenda. It will be at Los Cazadores restaurant.

Of the several directions in which a parking solution may be found, one is extremely long range. It could be done like the new breed of planners do; namely set up an ultimate plan — one that would be the most feasible regardless of cost or present development. That plan could then be adjusted within the scope of future ability.

It should be recalled that this publication, some ten years ago, urged the business community to obtain property on secondary streets — Lester and Grove streets were those indicated — for parking. Those associated with business firms would have been required to use the property for parking and pay for the use. The idea was mulled for weeks by a Chamber committee but, obviously, no action was taken.

There is another idea. One that would give immediate relief. And this one is almost as old as Broadway itself where parking is the most troublesome.

It consists of each business manager seriously discussing with his employees the need for them to park at least three blocks away or along the railroad park north of Lester or south of Golden ave.

Coupled with this accomplishment should be the display of signs in the window on each establishment which would read something like this:

"Persons associated with this establishment park their vehicles outside of the business district so that you may have space to park."

Official signs would be given only to those who sign up and meet the commitments of the agreement. There would be intense neighborly pressure on non-conformists.

There should also be a committee to meet with the local school district to encourage their employees to use parking facilities in the Golden Avenue and Lemon Grove Junior High School parking lots. Teachers who are now using space on Golden ave. should be nudged back into the school lots.

For the benefit of the shopping public who wonders at the complexity of a matter so simple as providing parking, here is what causes some of the trouble.

Let's say that Joe, the printer, orders his employees not to use the dwindling parking space in front of his shop. These guys don't want to lose their jobs, so one parks in front of the bank and another parks in front of the women's shop.

The women's shop manager has given out the same orders. One of these clerks now parks in front of the print shop and the other in front of the restaurant.

In the shuffle, just as many parking spots are taken from patrons of the business community.

Of course it's going to be hard to enforce the ban at the beginning. But the same pressures from management that caused the parker to move from his own front door can be used to get the employee out of the critical parking area.

Additionally, decals can be used on the vehicles participating in the Chambers "Operation Easy Parking" and this would further identify those cars taking part and it would tend to isolate those who are contrary to the plan.

The Chamber, naturally, should have a committee that would call on all establishments and obtain their co-operation even if they are not Chamber members.

There should also be an enforcement committee. One that would call on recalcitrant firms that are either forgetful or stubborn.

When business associates realize that most people along Broadway are participating, it won't take them long to recognize that a certain car is parked at his door all day. If the culprit will not identify himself, it is possible that the sheriff's office will lend a hand.

Parking is not for the benefit of a few along Broadway. It is for the survival of the entire business community including the hardhead who parks there all day in spite of the effort of all th rest.

More Equitable Financing

Helix Urges Passage of Bond Issue for Water Improvements

Helix Water District is urging its 45,000 customers to approve an $11 million long-term bond issue, Proposition AA, on the November ballot to finance needed improvements and repairs.

The State Board of Health has required Helix to make the improvements before it will permit the District to blend northern California water with the Colorado River water now in use.

Lesser of Evils

The proposition, termed by Helix officials as the lesser of evils, would sell revenue bonds at 8% interest and pay them back over a period of 30 years. If long-term financing is voted down by residents in the Helix district, improvements will still be made with short - term financing which will hit present Helix customers harder. The average monthly increase over the next ten years will be about $.76 for long term and $1.66 for short term financing.

Helix favors the long term method because it is a more equitable means of obtaining the revenue. The average life span of the improvements is 50 years. If short term financing results, water users over the next ten years will suffer the full brunt of the costs for facilities that will serve customers for the next fifty years.

Cost Breakdown

Breakdown of the $11 million needed for renovation is as follows:

$2.3 million is needed for the addition of two sedimentation basins at the R. M. Levy Treatment Plant in the Lakeside area to comply with Board of Health standards. Work is expected to begin on this project in March.

Replacement of one of the two main transmission lines, a gravity-fed pipeline built in 1933, will cost $1 million and is expected to begin in April, 1976. The pipeline will be replaced by pressurized piping which will increase the flow capacity and be less susceptible to damage.

$5.8 million will be spent to replace Grossmont Reservoir, an open body of treated water which is in constant danger of contamination from air pollution, animals and trespassers. The reservoir is to be replaced with two smaller enclosed basins, permitting one-half of the reserves to be taken out of service for regular inspection and maintenance. Work on the new reservoir is slated for late 1978.

A new pumping station will then be necessary to augment Grossmont during peak hours. The $750,000 station will pump from the Levy Treatment Plant to satisfy peak demands.

Reserve funds of $1.15 million round out the $11 million figure.

Rock in the Window

A rock was thrown through the plate glass window of the Rocky Home Milk Store at 9951 Campo rd., Casa de Oro October 9. Damage was $90, according to the sheriff's office.

Citations to Be Issued To Golden Ave. Parkers

The probationary period is about over.

Those who have been parking in restricted area at the west end of Golden ave. near the First National Bank will not be given warning tickets beginning Monday — they'll get citations.

The announcement came Friday from the Sheriff's Department after several hundred feet of curbside had been "signed" as "no parking" except for emergency vehicles.

Many cars operated by sheriff's detectives are unmarked and they come in and out of the sheriff's Lemon Grove office frequently on an emergency basis. "Sometimes they have a criminal in custody and other times they have to leave in a hurry to attend an emergency call. Officers must be near their vehicles," Sheriff's Captain Barney Olham said.

The restricted area is plainly marked by signs on both sides of Golden ave. — westerly 150 feet or so from School lane's intersection with Golden ave.

The curbs are scheduled to be painted red in the "no parking" area. Citations will be issued Monday whether the County curb-painters have completed their job or not, it was said.

Thief Takes Tape Deck; Cuts Tires

A tape deck and tapes valued at $125 were taken from the auto belonging to Harold Dean Carlisle, of 455 Broadview, Spring Valley on October 9.

The thief also cut the tires on the passenger side of the car, the sheriff's office was told. The car was parked in his driveway.

'Silent Alarm' Tips Off 'Grass Garden' and 'Arsenal'

Sheriff's deputies were called in when a silent burglar alarm at 1965 Massachusetts ave. in Lemon Grove was set off about 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday of last week at the home of Romeo Wayne Arra, 24.

No evidence of intrusion could be found although the officer noted a familar plant growing in a hanging basket in Arra's house.

The officer left the premises long enough to call for cover and re-entered the house and arrested Arra fo possession of maijuana—the hanging basket being the "grass garden".

Further investigation produced a bizarre array of items.

The list, in part, looks like this: 287 marijuana plants; 70 barbiturates; 50 tuinal tablets; 2 vials of marijuana seeds; roach clips and pipes and assorted marijuana paraphernalia.

Also an arsenal consisting of seven pistols of various calibers; eight rifles; a semi-automatic weapon; a small cannon; four shotguns and 10 silver ingots. Also six sticks of dynamite.

Officers reported that Arra has a police record, having served two months for trespassing on a government reservation and having served time in Arizona for attempted burglary.

Among the charges Arra will face in El Cajon Municipal Court are: ex-convict in possession of guns; possession of marijuana; cultivation of marijuana and possession of restricted dangerous drugs.

14, 15-Year Old Burglars Caught

Two youthful burglars, one 14 and the other 15 were declared to be burglars that had entered the home of Dean Gabriel Krenz of 3885 El Canto st., Spring Valley on October 8 taking a number of valuables.

At least one was suspected of being the culprit who had burglarized Krenz' home on another occasion.

The older of the two gathered himself another problem when police searching for the stolen property in his home not only found some of the items but found additionally 11.8 grams of marijuana he had secreted together with pipes.

Both youngsters were arrested by sheriff's deputies.

Youthful Robber Takes School Money

A bag containing $115 in cash and $233 in checks was taken from a school van making routine rounds October 8 about 3 p.m.

LeRoy Wallen, a delivery clerk stopped at the Lemon Grove Junior High school in the van containing bags of money and checks from seven other schools.

As he returned to the van he and a witness saw a youth fleeing with a bag which proved to be the money from Palm Junior High. The other bags were not removed.

Police are tracking down suspect who was adequately described by a custodian.

'Steam' Is New Band For V.F.W. Teen Dance

A new band has been chosen to play for the monthly Teen dance at the V.F.W. Hall Friday, October 25.

The band is "Steam" and it will be back by popular demand having satisfied young dancers last month.

The dances are fully chaperoned by members of V.F.W. Post 2082 and its auxiliary. Dances are without cost to young dancers but they must acquire tickets in advance.

As an added attraction, a special prize was awarded to the youngster holding ticket no. 2082 which is the same number as the V.F.W. Post under whose auspices the dances are held.

New, too, was a prize of five gallons of gasoline given by Broadway Texaco Service at Broadway and Massachusetts. The gasoline prize was won by Debbie Wilson.

A baking contest is being held at the next dance with a prize going to the one with the best decorated cake. Youngsters may enter the contest by calling 465-1992. The cakes will be sold the next day in the club lounge, and proceeds will go to the teen fund.

Museum's Centennial to be Marked by 3-Day Ceremony

Three days of celebration will begin Friday night at the Natural History Museum as it celebrates the anniversary of the founding of the San Diego Society of Natural History 100 years ago on Oct. 20, 1874. Friday, Euell Gibbons, conservationist and natural food advocate, will speak at a dinner for Centennial Sponsors of the Museum (donors of $100 or more).

On Saturday, Museum members will attend a special birthday party from 5-9 p.m. at the Museum to preview the new $100,000 sq. ft. Sefton Hall of Shore Ecology which opens to the public Sunday. Joseph F. Sinnott, member of the Society's Board of Trustees, will dedicate the Museum's new exhibit to the citizens of San Diego and their children.

Music by the Marine Band, the Navy Drum and Bugle Corps and the Park's Carillon will open Sunday's events which will formally begin at 12:30 N, although the Museum will be open during its regular hours — 10 a.m. to 4:30.

Besides free admission all day, the Centennial Day event on Sunday will offer a free program of natural history films throughout the day, Docent information in the new exhibit hall, demonstrations of techniques used in making certain exhibit specimens and tours of the Museum's outdoor ecology "hall", Florida Canyon Nature trails at 11 a.m., 2 p.m. and 2:45 p.m. with shuttle buses available at the West entrance.

L.G. CoC to Hear Paramedic Program

Dr. Sylvia Micik, associated with the Emergency Health Center program will be speaker next week on Thursday at the regular monthly meeting of the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce.

She will discuss the paramedic element of the program.

The meeting will be held at noon at Los Cazadores, 7836 Broadway in Lemon Grove.

All citizens are invited but reservations should be made at the chamber office — 469-9621.

The board will meet Glenda Jackson, its new office manager for the first time.

Intruder Takes $1180

Burglars made off with articles valued at $1180 from the home of John Nicholas Steeber at 2847 Lincoln st., Lemon Grove on October 9.

A window screen was removed to get to the items the burglar wanted, namely a color teevee; a black-and-white teevee; stereo equipment, binoculars and a gold watch.

Reagan to Attend Bollman Dinner

Governor Ronald Reagan will be the guest of honor at a $50-a-person fund-raising cocktail/dinner party to be held Monday in the Cove Room at the Vacation Village Convention Center on Mission Bay.

Hosted cocktails with the governor will be at 6:30, followed by a buffet dinner and dancing at 8:00 p.m.

Clifford C. Graham and John Maybee are co-chairmen of the dinner with Congressman Clair Burgener acting as the master of ceremonies.

Tommy Prothro, San Diego Charger football coach and honorary chairman of the Citizens to Elect Mike Bollman committee is also expected to attend.

Bucket Seat Covers Lost

Bucket seats, covers and tools valued at $120, were taken from a dune buggy belonging to Andrew G. Foster of 408 Broadview, in Spring Valley on October 10.

Grossmont Teachers Agree on 8% Raise

By John Kowalczyk

An 8% salary and benefit increase was approved by teachers of the Grossmont Union High School District last week, ending over two months of negotiations with the District's Board of Trustees.

The Board voted 3-2 approval of the 8% figure at an October 7th meeting. Teachers met later in the day and voted 161 to 88 to accept the figure.

Teachers had, at one point in the negotiations, asked for as much as 14% to cover an expected cost of living rise as high as 18% for the coming year, based on estimates by the California Teachers Association.

The increase amounts to an estimated cost to the District of $1.97 million, according to Dr, Austin Sellery, district superintendent.

$1.2 million was allocated to cover a 5% pay increase awarded the teachers July 1. Sellery estimates that the added 3% will amount to about $770,000.

Funding for the increase comes from the certificated and classified salary accounts of the District. If the account is depleted due to the raises, program cuts will be the only alternative, Sellery says. He anticipates, however, that cuts will not be necessary although the actual dollar figure is undeterminable due to account fluctuations caused by retirements, summer school and the adult education program, among other factors.

Minor benefits accounting for part of the increase include an allotment for eyeglasses and a $10/day increase in the maximum benefit paid for hospitalization.

The pay hike also applies to non-professional employes at the Grossmont District.

Bus Route Change Here Gives Better Service Officials Aver

All is not bad news for Lemon Grove and Spring Valley bus riders.

A few stops have been taken away.

More have been added than have been dropped.

Claude R. Page, traffic coordinator for the San Diego Transit Corp said this week that the several changes in schedules and stops that have been made have produced more riders. "That's a good indication we're moving in the right direction," he said.

Residents of Lemon Grove and Spring Valley can get to the College Grove transfer point and get down town in half the time it formerly took," he said.

Stops dropped in Lemon Grove are in the Massachusetts-Imperial ave. area — an area near Encanto. The Spring Valley "loop" which circled over Campo rd., Bancroft dr. and Palm st. and completed the circle at Palm and Imperial was also dropped. "It carried five riders or less each day," Page said.

Route Moved East

John Wittington, a transit analyst for the Transit firm said the route along Englewood had been moved east one block to Skyline and the passenger total increased immediately. "Probably some of those who had been using the Englewood stops had walked over from Skyline or beyond," Wittington said.

The major change however, was the schedule. The old "F" line with the above changes has been converted into two time segments. It runs between the State College area to Trace rd. and Jamacha blvd. —a point just east of La Presa. The routing is through Lemon Grove on Skyline and between Kempf st. and the College Grove off-ramp.

Buses will make the run the entire length of the line 15 times a day on an hourly basis from 6:36 a.m. to 7:36 p.m. That route is designated no. 36.

The west section of the route is "rapid transit." That is the portion between the college area and a terminal point at Skyline and Jamacha rd. at the little triangle formed by the roads just south of the Skyline Wesleyan Methodist church.

35 Trips a Day

That portion is scheduled for 35 trips a day — more than twice as many for the La Presa end of the run.

The schedule for the Lemon Grove-College area run is about every half hour. This route is no. 36A.

The flow of other than freeway traffic in the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area is generally northwest, Page noted. "Route 36 follows that flow. Route 36 riders can transfer to the express route at College Grove and get downtown quicker than ever before. Those who ride to San Diego State University can get there now without delay or transfer," he said.

New service is to be added in the east county with much of that service planned for the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area, Page said. If delay comes it will be the result of slow delivery of buses — the factory is on strike presently, he said.

"Transit Action Plan" which is programmed through mid-February has already been set into motion. Precise elements of the plan as it affects the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area will be announced as buses are obtained and pressed into service, it was said.

Increased service for the Casa de Oro area is dependent on instructions from County Board of Supervisors it was said.

Local Detectives Recover $3,500 Stolen by Juveniles

It was sterling detective work on the part of two Lemon Grove sheriff's deputies who recovered $3,500 in cash and other valuables stolen from a Lemon Grove resident in just two working days.

The men are T. E. Johnson, of the sheriff's burglary detail and Roy Root, a juvenile detective.

It all started when John L. Schedine, of 3895 Harris st., reported to the sheriff's department that during a 3-hour absence shortly after noon, someone had entered his house and took $3,500 in cash, some antique coins, rolls of silver coins and a watch. Total loss $4,332.

The burglary was apparently committed by persons knowing the habits of Schedine since the house was not ransacked.

Most of the items were taken from a drawer in a bedroom dresser.

The officers followed clues which led to the Darryl st. residence of a 16 - year old youth. Armed with a search warrant the officers found the money intact. They also found 99.5 grams of marijuana in the mattress on the boy's bed. Two other youths were involved. Two of the three are 15-year olds. One lived near the victim.

Officers charged one lad with burglary; another with possession of marijuana and possession of restricted dangerous drugs.

Schedine has since found a safer place to stash his money —a bank.

Burglar Makes $2,204 Haul From Student

It was an expensive night at school for Deanne Marie Perry of 7810 Barton dr., Lemon Grove.

When she returned home from classes on October 9 about 11 p.m. the front entrance to her residence was open.

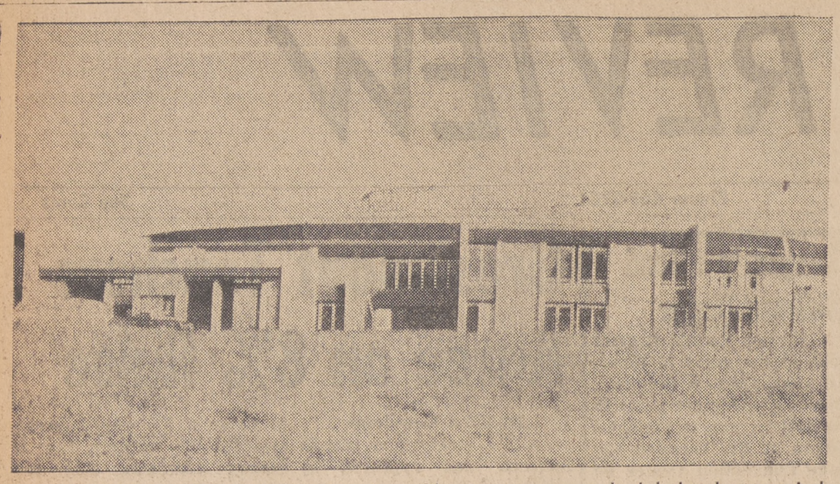
Missing inside were items she valued at $2,204. These included stereo equipment; an AM/FM radio; a color teevee; jewelry and a jewelry box; coins and a fur coat.

Wheels and Tires Taken from Truck

Jeffrey Lynn Tammen of 3917 Conrad dr., Spring Valley, parked his 1974 pickup truck in the lot at his home October 7 about 10 p.m.

The next morning, ready to go to work, he found that a thief had removed four Anson Spring aluminum wheels with polyglass tires from the vehicle.

His loss, he told officers, amounted to $300.



HIGH SCHOOL IN THE ROUND — Nearing completion after a summer of strike delays is Valhalla High School, a round, saucer-like structure now scheduled to be occupied early next year.

Feb. 3 is New Deadline for Opening of Valhalla School

By John Kowalczyk

The new Valhalla High School, plagued by strike delays this year, will open for the new semester on February 3, it was announced last week by Grossmont Union High School District Assistant Superintendent for Business John Barrons.

Last summer's carpenters' and plasterers' strikes, and a few weather problems delayed the original fall opening.

Valhalla's students crowded into Granite Hills High School this year, forcing the school into double shifts. Granite Hills students attend a 7 a.m. to noon shift and the Valhalla students take over from noon to 4 p.m.

A problem with delays in cabinet delivery, hoped by Grossmont officials to be the last construction hitch, was resolved last week when the cabinet subcontractor promised to meet the February 3 deadline for installation. There had been consideration by District of changing subcontractors. A cabinetmakers strike was blamed for that delay.

The opening will bring 1,430 students into the new building located on Hillsdale off Jamacha rd., southeast El Cajon. They will share the school with construction workers who will be putting the finishing touches on the $7.2 million building.

Seniors will remain at their respective high schools, despite the opening.

"With a senior class next year, enrollment at Valhalla is expected to approach 1900," said Barron.

Concert, Lectures Offered by Grossmont

More interesting entertainment and lectures will be presented by Grossmont College's Office of Community Services this week, at no charge to the public.

Dr. Stanley Krippner concludes the series titled "Frontiers of Human Consciousness" when he speaks on "Parapsychology in the Soviet Union" at 1:30 p.m. today in the College Grove Shopping Center Community Hall. Dr. Krippner will repeat his talk at 8 p.m. in the Student Center at Grossmont College.

The award - winning Lark String Quartet performs Haydn String Quartet, opus 64, no. 5, "The Lark;" Bethoven String Quartet, opus 18, no. 2; and Brahms Quartet II, opus 51, no. 2 in a concert at 8 p.m., Friday in the Fine Arts Recital Hall. The string quartet, all members of symphony orchestras in Southern California, are Barbara Nord, first violin; Janet Lakatos, second violin; Carole Mukogawa, viola and Daniel Smith, cello.

Juliette Mondot, instructor of T'ai Chi Ch'uan, an ancient Chinese form of body discipline, will discuss "Movement and Meditation" at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Rio Seco School, Hoffman Lane, Santee to continue the series on "Oriental Medicine, Massage and Meditation."

Zoo 'Sunday Concert' Stars Mt. Miguel Band

The Mt. Miguel High School Band will perform at the San Diego Zoo Sunday.

The concert, free to Zoo visitors, will be held at 2 p.m. in the Zoo's Wegeforth Bowl.

Zoo officials said that the Mt. Miguel band and other top high school bands of California and Arizona would be in concert there once a month if the program appears popular enough.

The concert would be presented in a relaxed Sunday afternoon affair remniscent of generations-ago band concerts. Visitors, of course, would have the added advantage of strolling through the zoo.

The 120-member band under the directorship of Dean Immel represents Mt. Miguel High School in Southern California high school band competition and has performed in the Tournament of Roses parade six times representing San Diego City-County school districts.

Other accomplishments of the band include superior ratings at the S. Cal. School Band and Orchestra Assn. festivals, and firsts at the El Primero Band Review in Santa Monica and Maytime Band Review in National City.

The hour-long program will include a variety of music from the 1812 Overture to the popular music of Seals and Crofts.

The band is not only a class but a club for the students. The band is the largest organized activity on campus. All appearances of the band are on the students' own time. So far this year the band has made over 40 appearances.

The Zoo opens at 9 a.m., with plenty of free parking. All Mt. Miguel High School students will be admitted to the zoo by showing their student identification card.

UCSD Workshop To Help Elderly Get Around

An urban planner who thinks plans for solving the transportation problems of the elderly should be formulated with, rather than for, senior citizens, will present a workshop entitled "Transportation and the Elderly" on Friday, Oct. 25.

A UCSD Extension program, the workshop is expected to be of interest to senior citizens themselves, social programmers for the elderly, public planning groups, and private citizens who want to be involved in efforts to promote fuller lives for the older members of the population.

Robert Blanchard, who is working on students of the subject at UCLA's School of Architecture/Urban Planning, will lead the event, from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. in Room 4 of the City Operations Building 1222 First ave., in San Diego.

He will define who the elderly are, in economic and health terms, and where they live and want to be able to go. Current research at UCLA on the lifestyles of the elderly will also be presented.

Workshop participants will have opportunities to help formulate solutions that can be worked out with regard to routing, costs, and cooperative efforts between the citizenry and churches, voluntary clubs, social welfare agencies, and public planning groups.

The short course carries a registration fee of $20. Please direct telephone inquiries about enrollment to the Exten-Ext. 289, for details.

Public Confidence in Schools Upheld in Gallup Poll

BURLINGAME — In spite of much adverse publicity in recent years, the public still has confidence in the public schools and is giving them "A" and "B" grades for performance, Byran Stevens, president of the 145,000-member California Teachers Association (CTA), reclared recently.

Stevens referred to the "Sixth Annua Gallup Poll of Public Attitudes Toward Education, 1973-74," sponsored by the nonprofit Kettering Foundation.

"It's heartening to see the pubic schools rate so highly when so many governmental and business institutions have lost a great deal of the public's confidence," Stevens declared.

Stevens said it is significant that those rating schools the highest are the parents of public school students, who, next to teachers, are among the most knowledgeable about their local schools. Major findings of the poll:

A solid 64 percent of public school parents give schools an "A" or "B" grade, with another 24 per cent grading schools a "C" or average mark. However, even 62 per cent of parochial school parents and 57 per cent of adults without school-age children give schools an average or above-average score.

National adult totals show 48 per cent grading schools an "A" or "B", 21 per cent "C" 20 per cent giving an "unsure" or no answer, and only 11 per cent rating schools below average Stevens said.

Fifty-four per cent of all adult respondents, and 64 per cent of public school parents, would like to know more about their community's schools. They show particular interest in curriculum, qualifications of teachers, current teaching methods, school administation, discipline, financial status of schools, student attitudes, and parent involvement, as well as extracurricular activities and special information about "my child."

The pole covered a cross-section of 1,702 adults nationwide, comprised of 55 per cent adults without school-age children, 39 per cent public school parents, and 8 per cent parochial school parents (some had children in both public and private schools). A group of 250 high school juniors and seniors was also polled for comparison.

Jose Greco to Appear At Southwestern

Jose Greco, the famous Flamenco dancer appears at Southwestern College with his partner, Nana Lorca, in concert Monday at 8 p.m. in Mayan Hall.

Jose Greco sets the stage for a new, exciting, educational and entertaining experience. Accompanying Jose Greco and Nana Lorca are his maestro at the piano and his lead guitarist.

In the lecture-demonstration-recital Jose Greco discusses and then demonstrates with Nana Lorca the various techniques and characteristics of dances from the regions of Aragon, Basque, Valencia, Castile and Andalusia with the clack of boots, the strum of a guitar, the flash of flared petticoats and the click of castanets.

Reservations will be taken at the college's Community Services office, 420-1331 for groups of 20 or more. Tickets may also be purchased at the Box Office at 7 p.m.

HONORED SCOUT — Stephen Frederick Lins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Lins, 6081 Nancy dr., La Mesa, recently was awarded Eagle Scout rank and a special award for meritorious action from the National Council of Boy Scouts for exceptional use of his First Aid skills. The Medal of Merit, awarded to less than 2% of all scouts, honored Stephen's quick thinking and quick action which prevented more serious injury to his younger brother, Kenneth who accidentally put his arm through a window. Stephen is the Senior Patrol Leader of Troop 324, La Mesa.

CLUB WOMAN'S CALENDAR

Guild Luncheon Features Boutique, Fashion Musicale

The Women's Guild of the Home of Guiding Hands invites the public to attend their annual handicraft boutique preceding the Holiday Prelude fashion-musicale and luncheon on October 29 at the Vacation Village Grande Ballroom. The boutique opens to the public between 10 a.m. and noon in the foyer of the ballroom and features many gift items and decorations for the holiday season.

The Los Manos, Los Amigos, Pacifica, and Bobby Lin Branches of the Guild have been working on craft items over the past year along with the Parents Group from the Home and several of the residents.

Proceeds from the sale will go towards the landscaping of the Home's new Prescott Education and Activity Center being established in El Cajon and towards the purchase of a new 66 passenger bus for use by the Home's residents for transportation to school, workshops, and for outings.

Following the boutique is the 3rd annual Holiday Prelude Fashion-Musicale and luncheon. Fashions by Walker Scott Company will be highlighted along with entertainment by the "State Seven" and music by Pauline Gleason. Tickets may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Thomas Terry, 276-1100.

Marion Jones, a confession stories writer will provide the program.

To be judged are short stories, poems and articles from San Diego County writers. Three awards will be made in each of the categories.

The works of the winners will appear in the group's publication, "Showcase".

Judges are Gene Gregston, editor of the San Diego Union; Martha B. Garvin, writer for the California Senior Citizens News; Dr. Lee F. Gerlach, professor of humanities at USD; Rita Micklish, free lance writer, and Owenita Sanderlin, a short-story writer.

L. Stillman is Showcase president.

The group can be reached via P.O. Box 691, Lemon Grove 922045.

Food Contest Part of U.N. Day Festivities

A Culinary Contest will be one of the highlights of the United Nations Day festivities at Southwestern College Wednesday according to Mrs. Kitty Raso, chairman for the event.

"The contest is open to all interested young people under 18, adults, and professionals in San Diego County," Mrs. Raso stated.

Prizes will be awarded in each category and will include a Jaycee Plaque, an International Cook Book, United Nations Christmas Cards, and a Sweepstakes Prize of an engraved serving tray and a Jaycee Fiesta de la Luna Plaque. All entrants will receive a participation ribbon.

Food entrees for the contest should be delivered to La Bella Pizza Garden, 373 Third ave., Chula Vista before 11:30 a.m. or to Southwestern College Student Union Building from 1 to 5 p.m.

Following the free U.N. Day Program which will take place in Mayan Hall on the Southwestern campus at 6 p.m., visitors will be able to sample the food entrees upon payment of 25 cents or more donation to UNICEF.

3 Groups Join for Super 'Treasure Sale'

The Women's Committee of the Grossmont Community Concert Association, the Heartland Creative Community Association, and the Action Club of Granite Hills High School have joined forces to put on what they term a "super" rummage sale called "The Treasure Sale" on Saturday and Sunday at the Granite Hills High School gymnasium, 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.

The sale features only new and nearly-new items and also includes a bake sale.

The 2-day sale is being conducted to help furnish the community auditorium being built in the El Cajon Superblock. Also, a small percentage of the proceeds will be used by the Granite Hills High School Action Club in their work with the physically and mentally handicapped and the elderly confined in local rest homes.

Any sellable donations would be appreciated, and the following numbers may be called for pick-ups: 297-3551, 466-0863, or 466-3776.

Women's Committee Presents Violinist, Vocalist in Concert

Music fills the air at Grossmont College Sunday, October 27, at 8 p.m. when the Women's Committee of the Grossmont Community Concert Association presents their annual "Fall Musicale."

The first half of the program features 16-year-old Geoffrey Applegate, Violinist, accompanied by Illana Mysior on the piano. Geoffrey is a seven-year student of violin who has made several local TV appearances and performed before many local groups.

In the second half of the show, soprano Susan Wade, will sing four Mozart arias, three Poulenc songs and three Metamorphoses.

A reception follows the concert in the student Center. The concert is held in room 220.

Macrame materials will be provided free the first class session. Thereafter, the student must supply his own. Lemon Grove Library can be reached at 463-9819. Students are encouraged to register in advance.

Pre-Schooler Story Program in S.V.

A new year is about to begin for a school library story program for pre-school children in Spring Valley.

Ms. Lloyd Wilson, school librarian for both Avondale and Bancroft elementary schools, will be expanding her program to include Bancroft as well as Avondale schools.

Parents and preschoolers of Bancroft are invited to meet Monday, October 21, 10:15 a.m. in the school library, 8808 Tyler, Spring Valley. Plans will be made to hold regular meetings in various homes throughout the community.

The first meeting at Avondale Elementary is Tuesday, October 22, 10:15 a.m. in the school library, 8401 Stansbury, Spring Valley. The youngsters at Avondale will have their stories each Tuesday morning in the school library. Various audio visual materials will be used in the presentation.

The number at Avondale is 463-9275 and at Bancroft, 460-4111.

This Week's RECIPE

Make Good Gravy Every Time

Making gravy is an important part of the preparation of any turkey or roast chicken dinner. Conserve all of the flavor of every edible part of the bird for the gravy by cooking a broth with the neck, gizzard, heart and liver. Use as the liquid for the gravy. After the bird has roasted, make the gravy in the roasting pan so that all of the browned bits from the bottom of the pan will be stirred into the gravy. The meat from neck, gizzard and heart are good chopped and mixed with the dressing. Add chopped liver to gravy. To be sure that the gravy will always be smooth and free from lumps, use corn starch as the thickening agent.

TURKEY GRAVY

4 cups turkey broth
¼ cup fat drippings
¼ cup corn starch
1 cooked turkey liver, chopped
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon ground thyme
⅛ teaspoon pepper

Bring broth to boil. Pour off fat drippings from roasting pan, reserving 1/4 cup. Return this amount to pan. Sprinkle corn starch into pan and cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, about 5 minutes or until browned. Gradually add broth and bring to boil, stirring constantly, until gravy thickens. Add liver, salt, pepper and thyme. Simmer a few minutes. Makes 4 cups. For chicken, recipe may be halved.

Classroom TV is a Reality

Television in the classroom — a futuristic idea not too many years ago — is a reality for thousands of students in San Diego County schools this year.

A total of 1,700 instructional television programs will be broadcast during school hours between now and May 30 by Educational Commuuication Services (ECS) at the San Diego County Department of Education. This total includes 228 programs in 10 new series which began this week.

"Locally produced shows have been combined with other programs acquired throughout the United States in an effort to bring students and teachers the finest instructional television offerings available," said M. Ted Dixon, county superintendent.

Inservice education programs began Monday, October 7.

Programs will be broadcast on KPBS, Channel 15, and on selected cable television channels throughout San Diego County.

Among others eligible to watch the programs are students and staff members in the Lemon Grove school district. Each district pays a subcriber's fee of one dollar per student in order to receive the programs and supplementary materials and services.

Where are you going next year?

For most of us, vacation is over and we're back to the business of making a living. But next year's vacation time will be here sooner than you think. So here's a word to the wise:

Plan ahead. It seems that travel and accommodations reservations get more difficult each year. And prices aren't likely to come down.

So the time to start saving a little extra each month is right now. And there's no better way to build an adequate vacation fund than with a regular savings program at friendly, dependable La Jolla Federal.

Where you know you'll get back a lot more than you put in.

A. J. Foyt Joins Andretti, Unser And Rutherford for Riverside

RIVERSIDE — A. J. Foyt has become the fourth Indianapolis 500 champion to enter the Oct. 27 Formula 5000 Championship at Riverside International Raceway.

Foyt, 39, of Houston, will drive the same Coyote championship car he drove this year at Indianapolis. The Formula 5000 series is co-sanctioned by the U. S. Auto Club and Sports Car Club of America and is open to both Indy-type cars and formula road racers.

The other Indy winners in the field are Mario Andretti, Bobby Unser and Johnny Rutherford.

Foyt, who has won the Indianapolis 500 three times and the USAC driving championship five times, will be making his first road racing appearance in a formula car since the 1969 Rex Mays 300 at Riverside.

It will be a weekend of double-duty for Foyt, Unser and Rutherford. All three will also be competing in the second and third legs of the $200,000 International Race of Champions which is co-featured on the Riverside Grand Prix weekend.

The IROC is a series of four races matching 12 of the world's best drivers in identical Camaros. The first race was held last month in Michigan and was won by Unser. Rutherford finished eighth and Foyt 10th.

Other drivers competing in the Race of Champions are Americans Richard Petty, David Pearson, Bobby Allison, Cale Yarborough and George Follmer and Formula One road racers Graham Hill, Emerson Fittipaldi, Jody Scheckter and Ronnie Peterson.

Besides the USAC stars, the Formula 5000 race will have road racers Brian Redman, Sam Posey, Graham McRae, David Hobbs, Brett Lunger and 31-year-old Italian girl Lella Lombardi. It will be Ms. Lombardi's second appearance in America.

The Riverside Grand Prix schedule calls for one IROC race Saturday and one on Sunday along with two Formula 5000 qualifying heats and the $50,000 feature.

The IROC races are each 30 laps and 76 miles long. The Formula 5000 feature will go 100 miles.

Yachtsman Wins 'Champ' Award

His skills as a helmsman and tactician for the United States yacht Courageous during its 4-0 sweep over Australia's Southern Cross in the America's Cup series have earned for Dennis Conner amateur Star of the Month honors for September from the awards committee of he San Diego Hall of Champions.

The San Diegan attracted international attention in yachting circles during both the preliminary trials and the Cup competition by serving aboard three different entries, including the victorious Courageous.

In the early trials he skippered the Valiant, then assumed the helm of Mariner and so impressed the backers of Courageous that he was added to her crew for the showdown with Southern Cross. On Courageous he was helmsman for the starts and then acted as tactician for each of her races.

Former State Champ Fails To Appear for Sentencing

Jack O'Halloran, 30, a former state heavyweight boxing champion was once late for his July ring engagement at the Coliseum because the cops picked him up during a morning television show where he was on camera to tell of the lacing he proposed to give his opponent that night.

O'Halloran got knocked out that night in the 9th round of a scheduled 10 round fight by the opponent — the Koresetta Kid.

It wasn't O'Halloran's day.

Now, with his bail set at $15,000, O'Halloran has a bench warrant to add to his collection of woes.

Superior Court Judge William T. Low issued the warrant after O'Halloran failed to show up for the sentencing phase of a charge of assault with force likely to produce great bodily harm — a charge to which he pleaded guilty on September 3.

The boxer, who weighed 240 pounds for his last ring fight, was originally scheduled to appear for sentencing on September 24 but the court appearance was continued when he said he had fistic commitments on the East Coast at that period.

O'Halloran's lawyer said last week that he had a call from the fighter Monday but there was no indication whether he would be in San Diego for sentencing.

The assault charge stems from facial lacerations suffered on March 9 by a Spring Valley woman who was a waitress in the Stone Fox Bar, 4717 El Cajon blvd., when O'Halloran is alleged to have hit her in the mouth.

The woman, Mrs. Jonnie Gail Tracey, 32, said the assault was the outgrowth of a fight between the boxer and her ex-husband.

How you face tomorrow depends on how you save today.

It's easy to put off saving money. But you can't put off the future.

So maybe you'd better make sure tomorrow doesn't catch you with your savings down.

One of the easiest ways to get the edge on saving is to join the Payroll Savings Plan.

Just sign up where you work. An amount you specify will be set aside from your paycheck and used to buy U.S. Savings Bonds.

By the time the future catches up with you, you'll have a solid stockpile of Bonds to fall back on.

Join now. So you can face tomorrow.

Now E Bonds pay 6% interest when held to maturity of 5 years (4½% the first year). Bonds are replaced if lost, stolen or destroyed. When needed, they can be cashed at your bank. Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deferred until redemption.

TAKE FIVE

By John E. Wirges

The Ladies, Lord love 'em, are making great strides in telling the world they're as good as men. They can fly as high, dive as low and learn as much as the best of the guys. So be it.

But no matter how you cut it, gals will never be able to drive with the same authority as men. Not never. No way, no sir. Now that doesn't mean distaff jockeys can't push a rig and trailer across country with any throttle-jock around. Hell, some of the gals are even better 'n guys doing that. The same goes for the banked track and tight turn set. Speedway babes have a thing going for themselves and they're getting on top of it.

The driving I'm talking about is done with a club and it takes rhythm, balance and brute strength. Now two out of three ain't bad. But in the game of golf, it takes all three to get off the tee. And that makes it better for you and me.

And the gals are teeing off today in a ProAm and from Friday through Sunday at Stardust in the real thing to show everybody that you don't have to drive as far to play as well.

Over the years PGA tournaments, with few exceptions, have evolved into a driving and putting contest. Only the U.S. Open, the PGA, MONY Tournament of Champions and the British Open are traditionally played over courses that demand shot placement. Everything else is generally wide open. Just drive, pitch back to the green and putt. Simple.

But not so for the Ladies. Since they don't get off the tee that far, they have learned to get the most out of what they do. They have learned to drive clean and sharp, right down the middle. And they play golf from there on in. It's almost picture-book in form.

It's like taking a lesson in "How it is supposed to be done." They tee up, drive down the middle, hit to the green and putt out.

And it's all on display this weekend in the Cubic Corp. LPGA Classic, at Stardust Country Club in Mission Valley. The Ladies, Lord bless 'em, have learned to iron out their game and have more'n learned a thing or three about the game played (non-played really) by the likes of your's truly.

I once played a few holes with Jack Nicklaus and on my fourth shot I approached his drive. He was pitching for an eagle and putting for a bird, while I was three over double bogey on the second hole. What could I learn from him?

Now, the LPGA crowd hardly ever use a wedge for their second shot on a 445-yard, par-4 hole. And neither do I. The gals either use a wood or a long iron, and so do I. So, who can I learn from?

Like I'm at my mother's knee, I plan on helping my game this weekend, watching pretty ladies swinging. And even if I don't learn nothing, that ain't all bad. Swinging ladies have been my weakness.

And you can't beat the price. Tomorrow (Thursday) the ProAm watching is free. Then you can get ticketed for the 54-hole Championship clash for only $8, or pay $4 any time for daily viewing. Tickets are on sale just about everywhere, Pro shops, Sears' Stores, military bases, any Cubic Corp. office and, of course, at Stardust Country Club.

Any and all profit goes to kids, split between Junior Achievement and the Community Campership Council, an outfit that get city kids out camping, even those who commit the sin of poverty.

You'll see the best. JoAnne Carner, Jane Blalock, Sandra Haynie, JoAnn Prentice, all time champ Kathy Whitworth, pretty-as-a-picture Laura Baugh, local star Louise Bruce and everybody who's anybody in ladies' golf. Do yourself a favor and come watch 'em.

Westerners To Try For 4-in-a-Row

With three straight victories under their belts, the United States International University Westerners travel to Whittier Saturday for their first away game of the season.

Coach Don Turner's gridders will clash with the 3-1 Poets at 7:30 p.m. at Whittier, and it's been a long time since a USIU team has defeated the Poets. The last time the Westerners were able to down Whittier was in 1969 by a 41-21 score. Since that time the Poets have chalked up four straight victories, including a 24-9 victory last season.

The Westerners, who trail Whittier in the series that started in 1961, 9-4, will have to be at their best to bring home a win. The Poets have downed Azusa, 9-6, U. of San Diego, 16-12 and the Japan All-Stars, 42-3, while losing only to UC Riverside, 34-24.

DON WOODS — 100 YARDS A SUNDAY

Woods Can Lead Chargers Out of the Wilderness

Sensational rookie running back Don Woods leads the San Diego Chargers (1-4) against the Denver Broncos (2-2-1) at Denver's Mile High Stadium Sunday at 1 p.m. (PDT).

A college quarterback from the New Mexico U., Woods has rushed for 157, 133 and 118 yards in successive games. He was a $100 waiver acquisition of the Chargers and did not play until the fourth quarter of the season's second game.

No need to waste the bragging on Woods. His record tells it all.

By the game:

Houston 0 yards.
Cincinnati 21 yards.
Miami 157 yards.
Philadelphia 133 yards.
Oakland 118 yards.

Three straight 100 plus yards! A new dimension in Charger football, fans are saying.

Woods ranks third among National Football rushers behind Lawrence McCutcheon of Los Angeles (454 yards) and O. J. Simpson of Buffalo (447 yards). But his 7.4 average is by far the best.

"I wasn't thinking about 1,000 yards a month ago," said Woods, "It wasn't even a dream then. But now, sure, I'm shooting for it."

KCST 39 will have the telecast of Sunday's game because of the commitment of NBC to the World Series. Andy Musser and Dick Van Raaphorst broadcast for KSDO (1130) and the Charger network.

The Chargers play the Kansas City Chiefs on Sunday, Oct. 27, at San Diego Stadium.

State Hosts Annual Cross Country Events

San Diego State will host he 32nd annual Aztec Inviational cross country meet 'aturday in Balboa Park, with ix races in nine divisions, beginning at 9 a.m.

The major race of the day, he College, University, and)pen race at 12:45 p.m., has ttracted what Aztec head rack coach Dick Hill terms 'possibly the best university-evel invitational field in the 'ountry" this year.

With entries still not finalized, some of the schools that ıave indicated an intention to ·un include potential NCAA 'avorites Texas (El Paso) and BYU, Pac-8 contender Cal, WAC members Arizona and Arizona State, and PCAA foes Long Beach State and San Jose State, as well as the Aztecs.

Top Open entrants include the San Diego Track Club and the Jamul Track Club, a preliminary favorite.

Most of the top local high school and junior college teams are expected to compete in their divisions.

The schedule:

9:00—Junior High School (2.0 miles)
9:45—High School JV's (2.0 miles)
10:30—High School (2.0 miles)
11:10—Masters—two divisions (4.0 miles)
12:00—Junior College (4.0 miles)
12:45—College, University, and Open (6.0 miles)

The start and finish of all races will be just north of the intersection of 6th and Laurel, inside the Park. There will be individual and team awards in all divisions.

Last weekend, San Diego dropped a dual meet to UC Irvine, 20-53, although junior Mike Avrea won his fourth straight race as an Aztec.

By age group, chances are one in three that there will be two cars in the family if the household head is between 35 and 44 years old and about one in eight there will be three cars or more if the head of the house is 45 to 54 years old.

Former Mexican Champ Fights Ruben Navarro Friday Night

Colorful lightweight contender Ruben Navarro, aiming for his fourth career shot at the world title, approaches the second hurdle of a recent comeback bid Friday at the Coliseum when he meets former Mexican featherweight king Aurelio Muniz.

Promoter Mickey Davies slashed ringside and reserved seats for this week to $3 for the first 500 fans who come to the box office.

Navarro, the famed "Maravilla Kid" from East Los Angeles, looked sluggish in gaining a unanimous verdict over San Francisco's Bobby Jordan here on September 6th after a 15-month's ring retirement.

But now that he has his feet wet again, Ruben promises to show the kind of form that made him the division's top ranking contender when he fought Rodolfo Gonzales for the crown back in March of 1973.

"Hey, man, it takes a while to get in the groove when you've been out of action as long as I have," said Navarro. "But now that I have a 'tune-up' bout under my belt, I feel more confident than ever that I can win the world championship."

"I'm in the best condition of my life because I'm taking boxing now with a dead serious attitude. That's the big difference."

The 27-year old Muniz, like his opponent Navarro, is no novice to the fight game. A pro for eight seasons, Aurelio is a dangerous puncher who has met such names as Dwight Hawkins, Richie Sue, Jerry Stokes, and in later years, Love Allotey, Leoncio Ortiz and former world featherweight king Ernesto "Nato" Marcel. Muniz lives at Tampico, Mexico.

Also on the supporting card is San Diego heavyweight sensation Carlos Tijernia, the local preliminary fighter of the month who is undefeated in five starts, all which have ended via kockout. His opposition will be provided by tough Fernando Jones of San Jose.

Also appearing on the show will be Tijernia's cousin, unbeaten (10) amateur featherweight Ruben Castillo, a junior at La Jolla High.

Regular ticket prices are scaled at $5, $4 and $3, with the action getting underway at 8 p.m.—but to the first 500, any seat—$3.

Last Week

Mickey Davies billed it as the "City Championship".

The Texan lightweight boxer, Jimmy Heair, who now claims San Diego as home, believed it was for the city crown.

So did the Mexican Miguel "Mike" Mayon, who likewise considers San Diego his nesting place.

Then they fought for 10 rounds as if the crown was at stake. It was a bloody brawl from the first round. It was in the first that Heair's nose was damaged severely and bled profusely but he managed to pile up points. He should. He is ranked number five lightweight in the country. But the nose damage, which followed an operation earlier this year to correct other damage, may have to be corrected again because Mayon hit him everywhere on the head, including his nose. Heair seemed to run out of gas after the 8th round and might have suffered a KO if the fight had gone 12 rounds.

Mayon's punches didn't seem to carry much power. But that was deceptive. He uses his wrists a lot to add to his drive. Two officials gave the fight to Mayon and one called it a draw. Newsmen at ringside, with possibly one exception, thought Heair to be the winner. Matchmaker Davies declared a rematch for next month but a lot may depend on how Heair's nose heals.

Muniz Wins

In another lightweight fight, this one a 6-rounder, Javier Muniz easily won a unanimous decision over Claude Durden. Muniz had scored a quick knockout over Renaldo Victorio in the same ring just the week before and Durden won an easy decision over Thomas Nava the week before that.

It was as good a scrap as the Heair-Mayon battle.

A six-rounder featherweight scrap ended quickly when Abtul Bey butted opponent Oscar Otiz on the brow as the third round got under way. Ortiz' eye bled profusely and ring official Dr. William Lundeen stopped the fight and the referee awarded the fight to Bey since he was leading at the time.

'Surfer' Decked

It was also a short evening's work for "Surfer Boy" Mike Hickman of Pacific Beach who ran into a "hot curl", as the surfers call it, and was decked at 2:04 of the fourth round by Rocky "Bob" Heverly. It was a slugfest all the way until Hickman made the mistake of dropping his arms to see where Heverly was. He was right there. Hickman got hit with a right and a left and went downhill from there.

Two amateur bouts preceded the pros and provided as much action as their fight-for-pay brothers did.

Q's Open Season Sunday at Arena

Lenny Bloom and his pearly smile.

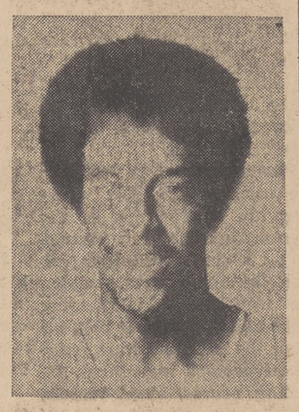
Alex Groza and his sweat-making workouts.

Bo Lamar and his 19 pre-season average.

These, and the rest of the San Diego Conquistadors, will be in evidence Sunday at the San Diego Arena when the Q's open their third season at 7 p.m. against the New York Nets.

The Nets may be more in evidence than the Q's. That's the team that won it all last year in the American Basketball Association.

The Nets are led by the incomparable Dr. J. Julius Erving. Others who star for the Nets are Billy Paultz, Bill Melchioni, Larry Kenon, Willie Sojourner, Billy Schaeffer, Willie Long, Ed Manning, Jim O'Brien, Mike Gale, Bryan Taylor and Al Skinner.



Bo Lamar

Former NBA stars Kevin Loughery and Rod Thorn are coaches. Loughery is head coach. Dave DeBusshere, who finished his career with the New Yorks Knicks last season is general manager.

For the Q's: Bo Lamar, C. Jones, Travis Grant, Stew Johnson, Bill Harris, Jim O'Brien, Tim Bassett, Scott English, George Adams, Reggie Royals, Greg Lee, Richie O'Connor and Billy Shepherd.

All of the Q's 84 games will be broadcast by Frank Simms over KOGO radio 60. Warmup time starts 10 minutes before tipoff.

Tickets are on sale at the Arena and all Arena ticket agencies, Montgomery Wards and Gable's Mens Stores.

Power Boats to Churn Waters at Vacation Isle

The First Annual Gordon Jennings Memorial Trophy Race and other competition is slated for this weekend at East Vacation Isle, Mission Bay.

The winner of a combined 225, 2.5, 280 Hydro race will be awarded the Mayor's Cup.

All classes of power boat racing will be represented including flatbottoms, hydros, jets and Outboard Performance Class craft.

This race represents the last chance of the year to acquire National Points for Drivers, so the competition is expected to be intense.

Some local drivers racing for points will be Jay Root, Bret May, Cathy Sanders, Lori Eaton, Bob Boster, Dick Van Beenen, Gene Lecoq, Mory Hale, Bud Jendreau, Chuck Dale, and Don Williams. Eaton will be driving her first race.

Mission Bay Boat and Ski Club will perform a half-time ski show.

Eliminations for jets, tryouts of GN's, hydros and flatbottoms, and the Mayor's Cup Race are on Saturday's schedule. Sunday's events include the final championship race for jets and GN's, the Gordon Jennings Memorial Trophy Race, and a one-hour outboard marathon.

Admission and parking is free.

Tennis Classic Deadline Changed

Extension of the entry deadline for the San Diego Tennis Classic to Monday, October 21 has been announced by Robin Dean, chairman for the November 1-3 and 6-10 event benefitting the American Diabetes Assn.

Entries are being accepted at the Association Office at 1970 3rd ave., in San Diego.

The Classic offers an Open Division for pros on November 6-10 at Vacation Village as well as an Intercollegiate Doubles Class here on November 1-3.

There are also Men's and Women's A, B, C and D Doubles and a Junior Veteran's Doubles Division November 1 at Vacation Village, La Jolla Beach and Tennis Club, Tennis La Jolla, Valley Tennis Club and Robb Field.

Mesa Beats L.A. Takes Week Off

Coach Tom Carter's Mesa Olympians built a three touchdown lead over host L. A. Pierce College Saturday night, and coasted to a 21-7 non-conference victory.

Mesa, along with the entire South Coast Conference, is idle this weekend in preparation for the league opener October 26.

The Olympians launch SCC competition on the road, visiting the hive of Fullerton's Hornets, last year's titlists.

The Olympians tuned for Fullerton at the expense of Pierce, most of the pain inflicted by the active right arm of Mesa's freshman quarterback, Jim Valenzuela. Valenzuela, who starred at St. Augustine High a year ago, gave Mesa a 14-0 advantage at the half. He tossed TD aerials to tight end Tim Howard, 28 yards, and wide receiver Gary Dudley, 50 yards.

LOVELY GOLFER — Pretty Pam Higgins is one of the 35-or-so lady golfers who will take part in the first annual Cubic Corp Ladies Professional Golf Assn. Classic Friday, Saturday and Sunday at Stardust Country Club. Pam was 21st in earnings on last year's LPGA tour. She stands a good chance of adding to her earnings this week. The Pro-Am section of the Classic is being played today at Stardust.

Women Star Golfers Here For $35,000 Pro-Am, Open

All the greatest names in women's golf are due here today to compete in the first Ladies Professional Golf Assn. tour event held in San Diego County since the Mickey Wright Invitational in 1969.

Occasion is the first annual Cubic Corporation LPGA Classic at Stardust Country Club, San Diego, with a Pro-Am set for today and the $35,000 Open booked for tomorrow through Sunday.

Joanne Carner, who recently broke Kathy Whitworth's all-time one-year earnings record of $82,864.25 and is still pursuing what would be a historic first $100,000 in winnings, with $85,719 to her credit, heads the lineup of pros.

Whitworth, known as the Jack Nicklaus of the LPGA for having dominated the money list eight out of the last nine years, will be seeking her 73rd career victory, a record second only to Miss Wright, also expected here.

Jane Blalock, second on the money list this year, winning $74,061, is an entry as in Sandra Haynie, present U. S. Open Champion and winner of six tour events this year.

Other standouts who will be playing are Sandra Palmer, Jo Ann Prentice, Carol Mann, Judy Rankin, Carole Jo Skala, Laura Baugh, Donna Caponi Young, Mary Mills, Betsy Rawls, Pam Higgins and Sue Roberts.

Local entries include Miss Wright, a former La Jollan; Karolyn Kertzman of Santee; Louise Bruce of La Mesa; and Susan O'Connor of La Jolla.

Beneficiaries of the tourney are Junior Achievement and the Community Campership Council. Cubic Corporation's sponsorship marks the first time in LPGA history that an industrial manufacturing firm, as opposed to one dealing in retail sales, has sponsored a tour event.

Toreros Try For 2nd Win At Pomona

Two starting backs are hobbled by injuries but the U.S.D. football squad still has a chance at its second win of the season, Saturday afternoon, when the Toreros visit Pomona-Pitzer College for a 1:30 contest.

USD enters the game with a 1-5 won-lost record while the Sagehens have played three opponents without success.

San Diego, with freshmen tailbacks Steve Goodbody and John Butler both sidelined, will once again use quarterback Mike Spooner to lead its offense. Spooner has completed 633 passes in 142 attempts in six games for 901 yards and a pair of touchdowns.

In four previous meetings between the two schools, USD has a 3-1 edge, winning last year's affair by a 57-7 margin.

Following the Pomona game, the Toreros return to San Diego for only their third home battle of the 1974 campaign, an Oct. 26 hosting of Humboldt State University.

Bill Walton in TV Debut

Bill Walton, La Mesa's basketball superstar, and three-time All-American at UCLA, will make his professional debut Sunday October 27.

It will be the NBA opening game between the Portland Trailbrazers and the Seattle Supersonics. The game will be televised via CBS starting at 1:30.

The game will be played at the Portland Memorial Coliseum.

Hitt, McIntyre To Go Against Indy Winner

Two-time Indianapolis 500 winner Rodger Ward of Los Angeles heads an all-star field of over 80 drivers from all parts of the West in this Saturday night's 100-lap Open Competition Super-Stock Car races at the South Bay Park Speedway in Chula Vista.

The large field will battle on the ½ mile clay oval in the $4,250 sweepstakes. Racing starts at 8 p.m., preceded by time trials at 6 p.m. Practice runs begin at 5 p.m.

The 53-year old Ward ended an eight year retirement recently, and returned to driving on a limited basis. A San Diego favorite from the golden days of midget racing at Balboa Stadium, Ward went on to win the 1959 and 62 Memorial Day speed classics.

At the time of his retirement he was the all-time point leader for championship race drivers in the United States Auto Club, and still ranks fourth in all-time wins.

Two of the drivers with the best chance to beat him are former ECSCRA title holders Pat McIntyre of Spring Valley and Jim Hitt of Lemon Grove.

Rams Bench Hadl

John Hadl, former Charger star quarterback and last year's National Football Conference Player of the Year, has been benched by the Rams for Sunday's game, coach Chuck Knox said.

The Rams have slumped to a 3-2 season.

Saturday, at the Stadium It's 'Montezuma's Revenge'

On the campus it's being billed as "Montezuma's Revenge" as San Diego U. attempts to avenge one of only two mars on its 1974 football record Saturday at 7:30 p.m. against San Jose State in San Diego Stadium. The game is a Pacific Coast Athletic Association contest.

State was 9-1-1 last year with the tie a dramatic 27-27 deadlock against San Jose State in a packed Spartan Stadium. San Diego's leader in last year's tie, Jesse Freitas, has graduated, but San Jose has its leader, Craig Kimball, back for his senior season.

Kimball, one of the top quarterbacks in the country, has led the Spartans to a 4-1-1 record so far in 1974, including an upset 13-11 win over New Mexico U last week. San Jose has also tied Stanford and lost 17-16 to California.

Against New Mexico last week, Kimball completed 12 of 23 passes for 189 yards and a touchdown. For the season he has now completed 85 of 177 for 1135 yards for nine scores. He has had 10 passes intercepted. He leads the PCAA in both passing and total offense.

San Jose State led New Mexico 13-5 late in the game when Lobo quarterback Steve Myer rallied his team 63 yards for a score, hitting six of seven passes, but a two point conversion attempt on the game's final play failed.

San Diego State prepared for the Spartans by beating Fresno State 24-21 in a PCAA game. The Aztecs were down 21-0 in the second quarter before the defense took charge and the offense came to life.

Aztec quarterback Craig Penrose hit 18 of 33 passes for 1884 yards to run his total to 383 of 80 for 414 yards. Penrose missed a game and a half with a back injury, however.

San Diego State rolled up 459 yards total offense, including 275 yards rushing. In the last two games the Aztecs have rolled up 576 yards on the ground. Monty Reedy was the leading ball carrier for the Aztecs with 129 yards on 15 carries. San Diego now has had a back gain over 100 yards in each of its four games. Frank Geary did it once and Bill Kramer twice. Reedy and linebacker Bobby Henderson were named PCAA Co-Player of the Week along with Sef Cortez and Dennis Zankich of Fresno.

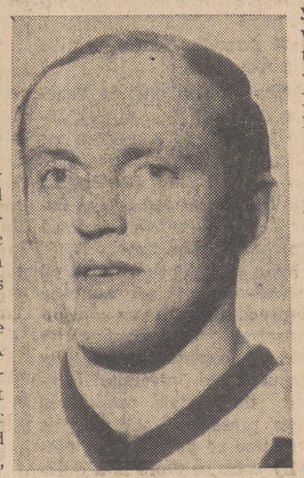
Aztec wide receiver Dwight McDonald caught nine passes to give him 28 receptions in four games and move him close to the national lead. McDonald and Son Jose's Ike McBee should hook up in a receiving dual. McBee has 27 receptions.

"We're really going to have to be ready to play against San Jose State," 'said Aztec coach Claude Gilbert. "We were very flat against Fresno State and it disturbs me that we could get behind 21-0. We showed a lot of character to come back and win, but we shouldn't have had to make a comeback."

Mariners Open Home Schedule Sat. at 7:30

All the hopes, frustrations and promises of a long summer turn into the stark reality of league play as the San Diego Mariners begin their 1974-75 World Hockey Assn. season this week.

The Mariners open their home schedule Saturday at the Sports Arena against the defending champion Houston Aeros. Local faceoff time is 7:30.



Norm Ferguson, Team Captain

Director of Player Personnel Ron Ingram and player coach Harry Howell have spent months in revamping a team that has finished last in both previous WHA campaigns. The fruits of their labor will be on view for San Diego fans for 39 home games of the 78-game league slate.

The Mariners are new to San Diego, having switched their franchise from Cherry Hill, New Jersey, April 30. Hockey, however, is not new to San Diego. Local fans supported a Western League team since 1966 with season per-game attendance averages as high as 9,371 fans.

San Diego should feature an aggressive, high-scoring team. The Mariners have always been able to score goals. The big job for Ingram and Howell during the off-season has been to shore a defense that was the WHA's most porous last season.

Leading the attack will be all-star center Andre Lacroix, the league's all-time scoring champ with 235 points in two years and the top assist man with 154. He took the point title in 1972-73 with 124 and was second to Minnesota's Mike Walton last season with 111.

Lacroix is Back

Lacroix missed the entire pre-season exhibition schedule while playing for Team Canada in the recent series against Russia but has participated in latest workouts.

Behind Lacroix are Mike Laughton and Brian Morenz, a 20-goal scorer, high-scoring minor leaguer Ray Adduono. Tommy Trevelyan was cut Monday.

On the wings, Gene Peacosh and Craig Reichmuth team with rookie Kevin Devine on the left side while Mariner captain Norm Ferguson, Wayne Rivers, Ted Scharf, Rick Sentes, Doug Volmar and rookie Jamie Bateman are all on the right with some switching expected.

Defensively, only Ken Block, Howell and third-team all-star Kevin Morrison return from the 1973-74 blue line brigade. The fresh faces include Bob Wall and Bob Falkenberg from the WHA Edmonton Oilers and Ron Plumb on a one-year loan from 1975-76 league entrant Cincinnati.

Following this week's opening action, San Diego stays home for three games, Oct. 22 against Cleveland, Oct. 24 vs. Phoenix and Oct. 31 against Chicago.

Gulls' Jerseys Available

Genuine Gulls team hockey jerseys are available.

These collectors' items are being used by the San Diego Gulls Women's Hockey Club as a fund-raising device.

According to Lynn Pankhurst, manager of the club, all of the jerseys left over when the WHL Gulls team was dissolved will be awarded to highest bidders.

Bidders may acquire one with their favorite player's name and number by bidding $20 or more. Bidders should send their names, addresses and telephone numbers to Lynn Pankhurst at 954 Kittiwake lane, Chula Vista, 92011.

Second, third and even fourth choices should be included. But send no money, Mrs. Pankhurst urges. Bidding closes Saturday.

The jerseys were given to the women's gorup by Bob Breitbard holder of the WHL franchise in San Diego.

The S.D. Gulls Women's Club is a member of the Southern California Women's Hockey League.

'New Look, New Attitude'

Tim Vezie's "New Look" San Diego State University basketball team began its six week grind to the season opener against Washington State on December 2, when practice officially opened this week.

Vezie, who took over as head coach three weeks ago when Dick Davis announced he was leaving the Aztecs to take an executive position with the new International Basketball Association in Europe, has eight lettermen back from last year's team and a host of talented newcomers.

Forward Steve Copp (6-7) heads the returners. Copp missed 14 games with a broken foot last year as a sophomore, but was averaging 13.1 points and 6.3 rebounds at the time of his injury. He also scored 39 points in an upset win over Kansas State last year.

The other top returnees are forward Allen Bunting (6-8), who averaged 9.8 points and 6.7 rebounds last year as a sophomore, guard Gary Earle (6-3), who averaged 7.5 points as a sophomore and guard Mark Delsman (6-1½) who averaged 5.2 as a freshman. Center Willie Stanley (6-7), forwards Craig Knudsen (6-7) and Joel Kramer (6-7) and guard Ray Leary (6-0) are also back. Stanley averaged 4.8 points and 4.7 rebounds as a junior while Knudsen, Kramer and Leary all averaged 2.1 points.

Knudsen and Kramer are sophomores while Leary will be a junior. Kramer missed 11 games last year with injuries.

Newcomers of Note

Top newcomers are forwards Vince Carson (6-7), Bob Kovach (6-6), and Jeff Welshans (6-6½), guards Raul Contreras (5-11), and Bob Green (6-2) and center Will Connelly (6-8).

Carson is a redshirt who trasferred to San Diego State after playing for two NCAA Championship teams at UCLA. Kovach was an All-State junior college player at Chaffey College where he averaged 23.1 points and 16.2 rebounds a game. He played on the National JC All-Star team in the National AAU Tournament in Baton Rouge last year. Welshans is from Katella High School in Anaheim where he was All-CIF and averaged 20.4 points a game and 14.5 rebounds.

Contreras is from Huntington Beach High School and was an All-CIF performer there. He averaged 23.5 points a game and four assists. He is a 51 per cent shooter from the floor and 84 per cent from the free throw line.

Green is from Bryant High School in New York, where he was a first team All-New York City selection. He averaged 22.0 points a game as he led his team to the semi-finals of the City playoffs.

Deddeh's Loan Control Bill OK

A major piece of consumer legislation authored by Assemblyman Wadie P. Deddeh has been signed into law by Governor Ronald Reagan.

Assembly Bill 3500 which Deddeh introduced into the Assembly in March of this year provides that the principle and interest on any loan secured by a mortgage or deed of trust on real property after January 1, 1975 may be prepaid in whole or in part.

"This bill will allow anyone who borrows money to purchase a home and who is later able to pay off the entire amount of that loan early, to do so," Deddeh said.

"This is an important breakthrough which could save homeowners and others who are able to take advantage of this provision, hundreds or even thousnds of dollars if they choose to pay off their real estate loans early," Deddeh said.

"People who will benefit most from the bill are those who resell their home before the original period of the loan expires or who are able to pay off their loan early. They will be the real money savers," Deddeh said.

AB 3500 applies to new home loans made after January 1, the effective date of the bill and does not prevent a borrower or purchaser from obligating himself to pay a prepayment penalty.

Wilson Designs Laws To Aid Home Ownership

Rep. Bob Wilson, R-San Diego, has introduced legislation aimed at making it easier for middle and low income families to buy homes.

Called the Home Purchase Assistance Act, the legislation is also designed to create thousands of jobs in the construction industry and related industries which have been hard hit by inflation.

"My bill would establish a source of mortgage credit which would be available to home buyers in times of tight money and would not cost the taxpayers a cent," Wilson said.

"The legistlation would provide for the creation of a housing trust fund which could draw on the Treasury for loans for both new and existing housing," Wilson explained adding that the loan limit would be up to $10 billion a year.

He said this money would be available through the Government National Mortgage Association (GNMA) to purchase mortgages on homes with prices ranging to $45,000.

"The mortgages purchased by GNMA would bear interest rates comparable to the long term Treasury borrowing rate, currently at 8⅝ percent," Wilson said noting that current market rate for mortgage money is 9½ to 10 percent.

Another provision of the Wilson bill would allow an income tax exemption for the first $1,000 in interest or dividends paid on funds on deposit with savings institutions.

"This is an anti-inflationary step to encourage people to save. The money generated by this would be lent by savings institutions to the construction industry so that new homes could be built," Wilson said.

Two Area Residents Honored by Scripps

Two Lemon Grove residents receive service pins from Scripps Memorial Hospital during the annual employee awards ceremony today. Receiving a ten year pin is Helen Leefeldt. Diane Lyons receives a five year pin. Seventy employees will receive awards for a combined total of 565 years of service to the hospital.

The awards are part of the week's activities celebrating the hospital's fiftieth birthday and commemorating the birthday of Ellen Browning Scripps, who deeded the hospital to the community in 1924.

Stull Demands UC Excess Land Be Sold by Bid

Senator John Stull (R-38th District) has called for the University of California to sell its remaining 14 vacant, subdivided lots in La Jolla Farms through the competitive-bidding process.

In a letter addressed to UC Board of Regents Chairman William French Smith, Stull also asked the University to reevaluate the entire 130-acre La Jolla Farms acquisition with the expressed goal of selling the entire area to private owners through the public, competitive-bidding process.

"I strenuously objected to the University's spending some $3.7 million in 1967 to purchase this property in the first place," Stull said. "After much prodding, the University has now sold 20 of the 34 vacant lots, but the availability of these sites was not generally advertised to the public, and the return which the University has received in no way compensates for the some $33,000 per year in revenue lost to local government when the University ill-advisedly took the land off the tax rolls.

Land Not Needed

"The University does not need this prime land," Stull said, "and it is an insult to the taxpayers of California to be asked repeatedly by the University for more dollars to run the system when such monies are then invested in such expensive, idle property.

"I believe the entire 130 acres, and not just the subdivided, vacant lots, should be publicly advertised as being for sale, and the University should then accept the highest bid on each of the various parcels."

Earlier this year, Stull introduced a measure, Senate Bill 2439, which would have statutorily required the University to utilize standard competitive-bidding procedures whenever awarding construction contracts or selling property. The bill was held in committee, partially because the University testified that such procedures were presently followed "as a matter of policy," and partially because there is a question regarding the constitutional autonomy of the University.

"The selling of choice La Jolla Farms property with inadequate public notice, including one lot and home to a provost with no bidding or public notice, is just one example of the need for the University to follow competitive-bidding procedures like other public agencies," Stull said. "It is my firm intention to introduce similar legislation next year. In the meantime, I believe the University can show good faith by at least offering the remaining 14 lots for sale to the public in an open, competitive manner."

Guess Who?

WINNER — Last week Kurt Listug properly identified the first of a series of "GUESS WHO" photos. The picture was of Olin Thompson of Broadway Hardware, 7846 Broadway, Lemon Grove. Listug won an adjustable wrench, valued at $7.
The second in a series is also a Broadway firm. To win, the reader takes a copy of the above photo into the shop and tells the employee, "This is you!"
The first person in will win a certificate good for $10 on any rental equipment he chooses. The object of the contest is to acquaint readers with the various types of businesses in the community.

Elected Bus Board Wanted By Voters Says Sen. Mills

Public opinion survey results contradict the position expressed by the Comprehensive Planning Organization and officials of various cities in San Diego County about the structure of the proposed Metropolitan Transit District, State Senator James R. Mills said recently.

Mills hired Economic Behavior Analysts, Inc. of San Diego to study 23 questions relating to government and politics during late September. The firm is headed by Dr. Oscar Kaplan, a widely-respected professional pollster.

Mills said the poll shows 62 percent of the people want the proposed district to be governed by an elected board. "Various elected officials testified this spring before Senate and Assembly transportation committees that the people want a board appointed by their city councils. It turns out to be just not so," Mills said.

"I was curious about the question," Mills said, "Because people I have met while campaigning seemed to comment on it often. I wondered if people were telling me what they really wanted, or if they thought they were being polite to me."

The poll was taken within the boundaries of the 42nd Congressional District.

The proposed district was the subject of AB 2648, authored by Assemblyman Wadie P. Deddeh, (D-Chula Vista) last year. AB 2648 was held up in the legislature while it's authors tried to resolve problems relating to the District's structure. It will be reintroduced in the coming Legislative session.

Senator Mills was Senate author of the bill.

Price Fixing Vexes Senator Richardson

Senator H. L. "Bill" Richardson, candidate for United States Senator, has asked Congress to pass legislation giving the Justice Department the power to end all government price fixing. Speaking to the employees at Sears in Sacramento, Richardson said that we must end government price fixing at all levels of federal, state and local government. We should stop setting minimum prices, whether for airfares or milk.

'Swift, Just Sentencing' Will Deter Crime–Bollman

Mike Bollman, candidate for the State Assembly in the new 77th Assembly District, urged changes in sentencing and correction procedures which he said are needed to more adequately protect the public.

Speaking before the breakfast meeting of the Sertoma Club in Mission Valley, Bollman said that the interests of the public are all too often overlooked because of what he called "overconcern for the convicted criminal at the expense of the public.

"I don't want to interfere with legitimate attempts to rehabilitate criminals," Bollman said. "However, society is entitled to protection and we must recognize that sentences are often required for the benefit and protection of the public.

"As an example," Bollman said, "swift and just criminal sentences will deter some criminals from committing crimes in the future. Deterrance, therefore, is a legitimate function of the sentencing process and must be emphasized where appropriate.

"We must also recognize that we may never be able to rehabilitate some criminal elements in our society. In these instances, another purpose of corrections — namely isolation of the dangerous criminal — should also be utilized."

Health Tips

Warts

Prepared by the California Medical Association

Warts are probably the most common benign tumor of the body. They are caused by a virus. These tumors are contagious, spreading from person to person, from inanimate objects (such as a gymnasium floor) to an individual, and from a person's hands to various portions of his anatomy.

Warts tend to be unsightly. On the hands, they are elevated and covered by a thick rough surface consisting of many closely-set projections. They vary in size but many reach a surprisingly large mass. On the face and neck of bearded men, warty lesions tend to be multiple and they often recur after removal. In children, the face is more apt to be affected by flat, flesh-colored or yellowish lesions called flat warts.

Plantar warts are found on the soles of the feet where they are flat because of the pressure and may be surrounded by a shiny, yellowish callous. In addition to pushing the wart inwards, standing and walking produces pain because the imbedded wart presses on various structures, including nerves, blood vessels, etc. In the genital area of both sexes and in and around the anus the growths may be small, but often they become large and merge with adjacent warts to form large masses. They may be warty or smooth or may develop into large grape-like or cauliflower-like masses.

No Uniform Cure

No therapeutic approach is uniformally successful. Perhaps none of them cures more than 75-80% of the cases treated. Treatment includes freezing with liquid nitrogen or dry ice, burning with an electric needle (usually combined with a scraping procedure called "curettage"), x-radiation (usually employed as a last resort), surgical excision (not a preferred approach), chemicals such as podophyllin (especially in the ano-genital region), various acids, formalin and a host of other acceptable measures.

The response to therapeutic measures is unpredictable. Furthermore, the cured patient may be re-infected. Uncured lesions are common reservoir for the production of such re-inoculation. Interestingly, re-infection tends to occur in the exact areas in which susceptibility to the wart virus has been demonstrated by the initial occurrence of these lesions.

Fortunately, in many instances warts tend to clear without treatment, but before that happens the warts may extend and may require years to subside. On the other hand, it is not unusual for a sufferer to wake up one morning and find that even an extensive eruption of warts has disappeared during the night without leaving a scar or a trace of the infection. This type of spontaneous recovery tends to give credence to a variety of bizarre legendary cures.

Lemon Grove Cafe Name Changed to Chinese Gardens

The Tea Pot Inn has changed its name but not its management, menu nor its location.

It is now known as Chinese Gardens.

"We have the same popular menu and our mixed drink bar," Howard Quon said this week. "Gilbert Hom is co-owner as he has been for the six years we have been in Lemon Grove."

Chinese Gardens is at 8015 Broadway, just east of Kempf st. A Jack-in-the-Box drive in, until recently, was just east of Quon's place but it has moved to the intersection of Kempf and Broadway relieving traffic congestion in the Chinese Gardens area.

The restaurant is open daily 11-11 and 12-12 on Fridays and Saturday.

Dealers Organize In El Cajon

Sixteen new car and new truck dealers in El Cajon have joined in a promotional organization under the banner of "El Cajon Valley of Cars".

Their first endeavor will be the showing of 1975 model cars Nov. 1-3 at a local shopping center.

IRS TAX ANSWERS?

F. S. Schmidt, DISTRICT DIRECTOR, INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q. I have applied for a new job with a company in Hawaii. Since I live in Vermont, the company will pay my travel expenses to fly to Honolulu for the interview. Do I have to pay tax on this payment?

A. If a prospective employer asks you to appear for an interview and agrees to pay you an allowance, or to reimburse you for your transportation and other expenses, the amount you receive is income only to the extent that it exceeds your actual expenses. However, if the employer pays the expenses as an inducement to you to accept the employment, the entire amount must be included in your income.

Q. I have bought a second house with the intention of renting it out. When my new tenants move in, they'll pay me a security deposit. Is this deposit considered rental income?

A. Security deposits received for the renter's performance under the lease are not usually included in rental income. If you appropriate the deposit because your tenant has defaulted on the lease, then the deposit becomes income to you.

Furthermore, if you decide the deposit will be applied as a rent payment for the last period of the lease, then it is advance rent and you must report it when you receive it.

Q. Where do I report the royalty income I receive from the sale of my book?

A. You should generally report your royalty income on Part II of Schedule E (Form 1040), Supplemental Income Schedule. However, if you are a self-employed writer, you should report your gross income and expenses on Schedule C (Form 1040).

Q. After my last physical examination, my doctor told me to get more exercise and lose some weight. Can I deduct the amount of my due for membership in a health club as a medical expense?

A. Generally, no. If your doctor did not tell you to lose weight because of a particular disease or defect but rather for the preservation of general health, your health club dues are not deductible as a medical expense.

Rehabilitation Symposium to Hear Younger

Caliente Jackpot Tops Maximum; Sunday Split Set

TIJUANA — Winning four races, including Sunday's feature, veteran jockey Jesus Munoz took the riding honors over the weekend at Agua Caliente and moved into third place in the standings.

Munoz, the tallest jockey at Caliente (5-9½), is noted for his classic riding style and for being able to rate a horse well in route races. With his four wins Munoz passed H. K. Wellington and now trails only Ramon Flores (53 wins) and Wilfrido Osuna (59) with a total of 45 trips to the winner's circle.

Osuna and Flores each had a pair of wins over the weekend. Bill Overstreet won only one race during the two days, but continues to be the track's leading apprentice rider with 34 wins.

The track's 5-10 handicapping contest continues to attract attention as the reserve jackpot has now climbed to $110,714 and the new rules regarding distribution of the jackpot will go into effect Oct. 20, unless there is a single winner of the contest Saturday.

Each time the reserve jackpot in the 5-10 goes over $100,000 one-half will be distributed to winners one week later on a Sunday. One-half will remain in the jackpot to be built back up to $100,000 once more, even if there is a single winner on the Sunday the jackpot is distributed.

Racing continues Saturday at Agua Caliente with the new post time of noon for the first race of the day. There are 12 races daily, Saturday and Sunday.

Hoop Practice At USD Starts Aztec Five-

A host of talented but mainly untried candidates will blend with six returnees as the University of San Diego begins practice this week for the 1974-75 basketball season.

Second year coach Jim Brovelli is sending a group of at least seven newcomers plus two redshirt prospects with his nucleus from last year's team through afternoon workouts preparing for a 26-game schedule that has a Nov. 30 opener.

The Toreros will count on this squad to take them into the National Collegiate Athletic Association post-season playoffs for the third straight season. USD was 16-11 in the won-lost ledgers in 1973-74.

AIR TRACK DRILLING AND BLASTING
WORK ORDER NO. 885011
ENGINEER'S ESTIMATE

Item	Quantity	Description
1.	1,000 hours	Air Track Drilling and Blasting

The foregoing quantites are approximate only, being given as a basis for the comparison of bids, and the Board of Supervisors does not, expressly or by implication, agree that the actual amount of work will correspond therewith, but reserves the right to increase or decrease the amount of any class or portion of the work, as may be deemed necessary or expedient by the said Board of Supervisors.

In accordance with Section 6423 of the California Labor Code, these contract documents contain, where applicable, a bid item to provide, for trenches or open excavations which are five feet or deeper, adequate sheeting, shoring, and bracing, or equivalent method, for the protection of life or limb, which all conform to applicable safety orders.

In accordance with Section 1770 of the California Labor Code, the Board of Supervisors has determined the prevailing basic rate of per diem wages, inclusive of fringe benefits, a copy which may be seen in the Office of the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors (Document No. 4787171).

The attention of Bidders is directed to the section of the Contract Documents which outlines Affirmative Action Requirements for equal employment opportunity. At the time of submittal of the Bid, each Bidder must furnish to the County his completed and signed "Bidder's Certification." Prior to the award of any subcontract of $10,000 or over, the prime contractor must likewise obtain and furnish to the County a "Subcontractor's Certification" from each such prospective subcontractor.

No bid will be accepted unless it is made on a form furnished by the County Engineer, and is accompanied by the security referred to therein. Form of bid proposal and bonds may be obtained at the County Engineer Department.

No award will be made to a Contractor who is not licensed under Chapter 9, Division 3, Business and Professional Code, or to whom a proposal form has not been issued.

The successful bidder, simultaneously with execution of the contract documents, will be required to furnish a Payment Bond for Public Works in an amount equal to fifty (50%) percent and a Performance Bond in an amount equal to one hundred (100%) percent of the contract price, each secured from a surety company satisfactory to the Board of Supervisors, and on the form contained in the Contract Documents.

The Contract Documents, which includes Plans and Specifications, may be examined at the County Engineer Department, Building 2, Room 184, 5555 Overland Avenue, San Diego, California, 92123. A copy of the Contract Documents may be obtained at said Office upon payment of $8.00 plus tax. If payment is made by check, it should be made payable to the "County of San Diego". NO REFUND WILL BE MADE.

A copy of the publication "Equipment Rental Rates" of March 1974 may be obtained at said Office upon request.

The attention of bidders is particularly directed to the provisions of Sections 8-1.01 and 8-1.02 of the Standard Specifications regarding subcontracting and assignment of the contract, respectively.

The Board of Supervisors reserves the right to reject any or all bids, and the right to waive irregularities or informalities in any bonds or in the bidding.

A Lemon Grove woman is angry regarding the treatment she got at the hands of the "dog catcher" and later at the hands of the El Cajon Municipal Court.

Betty Ketelsen did what too few people do. She took the time to write a letter to the Clerk of the Court and sent copies to the media.

If she was mishandled and others were too, letting the public know about such treatment is one way to affect a change.

Her letter read:

Dear Editor:

I'm mad. But how do we get these dumb things changed?

M. Longtin, Deputy Clerk
Municipal Court of El Cajon
110 E. Lexington
El Cajon, California 92020

Dear M. Longtin:

In reply to your communication of October 1, 1974, charging me with violation of Section CO62.669 (dog unrestrained):

1. I cannot, nor do I intend to, pay $35.00 bail in this matter.

2. I do not plan to make a MANDATORY court appearance on October 10 ,1974 at 8:30 a.m.

My reasons for these decisions are as follows:

1. I did appear in El Cajon Municipal Court on September 23, 1974 at 8:30 a.m. I stood in line for 25 minutes, was directed to Department One, which I did and was ordered to leave the courtroom immediately. The courtroom was overflowing and it appeared that everyone was booked for 8:30 a.m. I did as I was directed to do, and after standing around with no place to even sit down, I sort of felt like an "unrestrained dog" out on your front lawn. Realizing that it would be hours, that I have a 5-day job with 3 teenage sons to support(and a day's wages obviously lost), I felt it was my bounden duty as a citizen and a taxpayer to appear at my job as soon as possible so I would not lose it completely and have to apply for County Welfare.

2. My dog was arrested IN MY OWN FRONT YARD, ON MY DRIVEWAY, following a conversation that the dog-catcher had with my son. I call that "trespassing" without my permission. I own my own home and I plan to do what I want to do on it with my dog. Had he been picked up somewhere else, then I am in agreement with you, but now I am very angry after this being about the third time this has happened, ON MY PROPERTY.

My directions for you:

1. You may arrest me if you wish but please see that you do it legally and not the way that it was done to my dog. Please bring with you at the time of arrest, TWO (2) fully-trained and competent adults to live-in and take care of my 3 teenage sons, as I (AND I ALONE) am their guardian, and to see that my dog does not appear in my front yard. ALSO . . . during this time when this rest in your jail will be bestowed upon me, I obviously will not be getting paid so I need absolute proof when you arrive that they will be properly fed and cared for during my absence.

In the event that I lose my job while you're wasting your money trying to make a criminal out of me, I will be applying for County Welfare and it sounds a little ridiculous to me that you will help to make this possible.

Incidentally, my dog has his rabies shots and all other shots as required by law in bring along to help is afraid case your caseworker that you of a friendly neghborhood dog that wags his tail, likes people and is friendly in his own home even with the dogcatcher. Thank you for your unpersonal, hard-nosed way of dealing with everyone that walks into your overcrowded courtrooms. I'm wondering what really happened to just plain old human relations and caring??

An irate homeowner, sick and tired of unreasonable, screwy government policies who would like to live simply in peace!

Oct. 7, 1974

Dear Editor:

Thank you for taking my 'phone call and thank you, too, for feeling free to write me of our own concern and that of others' in the Lemon Grove/Spring Valley area respecting services, or lack of same, by The San Diego Transit system.

We, the San Diego Transit Directors, are ever-eager to give full consideration to all such concerns and, of course, in like manner, depend greatly on staff studies and recommendations as to bus routes and their use by potential riders.

In like manner, we must assume (possibly, incorrectly) that, of all people, the Public Relations Manager would go the extra mile. Mr. Mooers contends that he has. However, at my request, he has agreed to visit with you and to give a report to his superior, Mr. Tom Prior, and, to me, as chairman of the San Diego Transit Board's Promotion/Public Relations Committee.

The Transit Board meets twice a month and, indeed, those with service concerns may ask and there will be an automatic granting of an opportunity to appear before the entire Board.

My years of experience with the Transit point up that, all related there try hard to please and, at least, document service or lack of service reasons. Please remember that we report to the owner — The City of San Diego. Therefore, the Mayor and the City Council review our operations, and properly so, with complete concern for our efficient service — riders, that is — on the routes we serve.

Please, please alert me if I can be of any further assistance.

Very truly yours,
George A. Scott
MEMBER OF THE BOARD
San Diego Transit Corporation

This letter is in response to a complaint to George A. Scott that a request for information on changing bus routes in the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area from the public relations manager of the Transit firm brought an answer consisting only of a copy of the bus schedule. And this meagre response was transmitted only after certain local routes were dropped.

My contention is that there are too many high salaried executives in public service who are paid to perform a function — that of informing the public through the various news mediums.

Auto Repair Business Gets Eye of Congress—Van Deerlin

The automobile has established itself as "the consumer's greatest cross," Rep. Lionel Van Deerlin, D-San Diego, told a gathering of auto-repair shop owners.

He said Congress is initiating new moves against "shoddy" repair and warranty practices, but added it is the repairmen themselves who ultimately will determine the extent and nature of governmental intervention in their affairs.

Major bills now nearing final congressional approval would tighten automotive warranty requirements and make manufacturers fully liable for safety-related defects in new cars, he said, adding both measures are far enough along to become law this year.

Van Deerlin spoke at the annual convention of the Automotive Service Council of California, at the Hotel del Coronado. The local congressman is a member of the House Commerce Committee, which handles most auto safety legislation.

"Congress is getting into the act—however belatedly—but the next move is up to you," he told the garage owners.

He noted reports that in the San Diego area alone some 8,000 complaints about deceptive auto repair practices are filed each year.

Van Deerlin said he believes "the great majority" of repair shops and mechanics are "completely honest," adding:

"It's the few bad operators who are making life a little less pleasant for the rest of you."

Van Deerlin praised the Automotive Service Council for getting behind legislation at the state level to require the licensing of auto mechanics.

He said similar legislation is pending in Congress. The federal bill, which like its state counterpart so far has gone nowhere, would encourage states to provide for the licensing of individuals and shops engaged in making appraisals as well as repairs.

Van Deerlin said at least 60 other trades now must be licensed under California law. "Exempting mechanics is just not logical," he said.

Pool-a-thon Hopes to Bring Area $10,000 Closer to Community Aquatic Center

A Pool-a-thon begins with a splash at Gunther Pool in El Cajon, Saturday, November 2, 9 a.m. to raise money for Miguel Community Aquatic Center, a community pool to be built in the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area.

The pool, to be built at Mt. Miguel High School, has received $25,000 funding from Grossmont Union High School District and $50,000 from San Diego County funds. The community must raise $125,000. Construction will begin when $90,000 of that figure is raised.

The rules for the Pool-a-thon are as follows:

Swimmers obtain sponsors who back them for a certain amount per lap. If a sponsor pledges 1 cent per lap and the swimmer swims 200 laps, the sponsor has backed the swimmer for $2. Some sponsors may prefer to pledge a certain amount, regardless of how many laps the swimmer can go. The swimmers try to obtain as many sponsors as they can to raise as much money as possible per lap. Goal for each swimmer is to swim for at least $1 per lap.

The swimmers can swim any amount of laps not in excess of 200 or 2 hours, whichever comes first.

Last year's Pool-a-thon saw 120 swimmers participate including 46 who made the "200 Club" for swimming the entire 200 laps. Swimmers were students and teachers from Spring Valley Junior High, Palm Junior High and Mt. Miguel High School; and members of service clubs and church groups.

Sponsors came from all over the area.

This year's goal is 200 swimmers and $10,000. Last year $7,000 was raised.

Information regarding how to participate or sponsor a swimmer can be obtained from Bob Sanders, 463-5551; Mary Ann Price, 460-0631; or Betty Sanders, 465-2694.

YOU AND YOUR PET

by: Robert L. Stear D.V.M.

Bathing Tip: Don't Waterlog Your Pet

You've probably seen it on TV: a small but determined boy or girl tries to get a large, wooly dog into a tub for a bath. After a minute or two, the dripping pet races through the house, ending up on the new bedspread or in a guest's lap.

In reality, the average household pet needs only an occasional bath. For cats and dogs that live indoors, a bath once a month in summer and once every other month in winter is sufficient.

Regular combing and brushing will effectively remove dead hair and dust from your pet's coat, while stimulating the oil glands in the skin for a shiny, healthy look. Combing also helps control the formation of hairballs in long-haired cats.

Bathing kittens or puppies younger than six months exposes them to the possibility of upper respiratory disease if they happen to catch a chill while still damp. If you have a young animal whose coat is very dirty, try removing the surface dirt with a damp washcloth, and the remainder with a dry shampoo. In this way, the moisture will not penetrate to the skin. This procedure is also recommended for older pets in poor health.

When you give your dog or cat a bath, make sure the room is warm and draft free. Line the tub with a rough cloth to provide firm footing, and use warm water with a mild soap. Lower your pet gently into water no higher than his belly and begin wetting the coat, starting at the head and working back. When the coat is saturated, work in the soap suds with a massaging action. Pay special attention to areas attractive to fleas — around the neck, under the stomach and forelegs and at the base of the tail.

As you wash, take special care not to get soapy water into the eyes or ears. Some experts suggest placing a very small dab of petroleum jelly or mineral oil in the inside corner of the eye so that a protective film of oil spreads out over the eyeball. If your pet has large, floppy ears that have a tendency to collect wax, wipe them out with a small piece of cotton dampened with baby oil or peroxide. Never poke or probe farther than you can see, and never pour liquid into the ear, unless the liquid is medicine prescribed by your veterinarian.

An essential part of the bath is a thorough rinsing. Much of the harm done by bathing comes from insufficient rinsing, which leaves a soap film on the skin that causes itching and flaking later on.

An important point to remember is that frequent baths are not a sure cure for "doggy odor." An unpleasant, persistent odor may be the result of an ear infection or dental problems. If you have tried bathing your dog and the unpleasant odor remains, check with your veterinarian.

Drying your pet after the bath is also important. Rub your pet dry with several large towels, following the lay of the hair. A few hours in a warm, draft-free room will finish the job.

A medicated shampoo can be obtained from your veterinarian, and its use will do much to keep your dog's coat in "show" condition and its skin free from infectious agents. Topical skin and coat conditioners are also available, and a dietary supplement that is rich in fatty acids will also enhance your dog's appearance.

Thief Takes Auto Items

Auto equipment valued at $400 was taken from the premises of Lovell Gerald Butcher, 647 Pecos st., in Spring Valley, on October 7.

Items lost included tires, socket wrenches and a power drill.

Agency on Aging Seeks Input

The San Diego County Area Agency on Aging has been holding a series of hearings to establish an area plan on behalf of the county's older persons.

The hearings are in compliance with a federal government mandate which requires each Area Agency to set the priority needs for Senior Citizens resulting from a community process with as much input as possible from community seniors, service providers and all other interested organizations.

Hearings have already been held in Chula Vista, and La Mesa.

Two hearings remain in the San Diego area: Tuesday, October 22, 10 a.m. to noon, Albright Methodist Church, 4101 48th st., S.D.; Wednesday, October 23, 9:30 a.m. to noon, Downtown Senior Center, 945 C st., S.D.

SDG&E Will Refund $814,567 Due to Supplier Overcharge

SAN DIEGO — San Diego Gas & Electric Company reported recently that it has asked the State Public Utilities Commission for approval of a plan to refund $814,567 to gas and electric customers in November.

The refund will amount to 27 cents for residential electric customers and 58 cents for residential gas customers and will be credited to their November bills.

Most of the amount to be distributed consists of a $757,476 refund that the company received from its natural gas supplier, Southern California Gas Company, plus $26,584 of interest added by SDG&E. The refund also includes a smaller amount resulting from minor adjustments in two previous refunds that occurred in 1971 and 1972.

The refund is in line with established policy to pass on to customers any overcharge funds that the company recovers from its supplier.

Maurice Watson Heads S.D. Bar Association

Maurice T. Watson, 49, of San Diego was elected 1974 President of the 1900-member San Diego County Bar Association by the Board of Directors at the Cuyamaca Club in San Diego recently.

Elected secretary was Howard J. Bechefsky, 34, of La Mesa, of the firm Sheela, Lightner, Hughes & Castro. The new treasurer is Harlan F. Harmsen, 46, of El Cajon, of the firm Driscoll, Harmsen & Carpenter.

Attorney Watson, a certified specialist in taxation law, is a partner in the San Diego law firm Harrison & Watson. A native San Diegan, he graduated from Pt. Loma High and received his J.D. degree from Stanford Law School.

Watson has served as vice president, treasurer, and a member of the board of directors of the San Diego County Bar Association for three years.

The officers will be installed at the annual bar dinner on December 6.

Village Liquor New Owner is Charity Bent

New ownership has been announced for Village Liquor and Wine Shop at 7779 Broadway, Lemon Grove.

The new owner, Wayne Hillman, took over ownership from Merle Strackbein earlier this month. He named Dennis Mehaffey as manager.

Hillman said that two community projects would be undertaken by the shop beginning November 20.

The first, he said, would be making his Broadway shop a drop-off spot for canned goods and other items to be distributed to the needy in the community beginning November 20.

In addition, he said, two per cent of all profits from November 20 on, would be donated to the local needy fund. The distribution, he said, would be handled through the Lemon Grove Woman's Club.

Hillman reminded that the store he now owns has been in operation here for 27 years "because of the support of friends, without whom business could not exist."

The two per cent charity offering is a "sharing program designed to express gratitude to those who helped make the business a success.

"The support and friendship shown to us so far has convinced us that together we can make this holiday season brighter for everyone."

Helix Band in Autumn Review

Saturday afternoon the annual "march for the roses" takes place as the Autumn Band Review is held.

This event is held yearly to select the San Diego City and County band for the Rose Parade held on New Year's Day.

This year the northern community of Rancho Bernardino is the host for the parade which begins at 1 p.m.

The Helix Marching Band carries the honor of Lemon Grove behind hometown drum major Greg Lusitana.

Helix is only one of the twenty-two bands trying for the honor to represent the City and County of San Diego on New Years Day.

Builders' Conference To Be Held Next Week

"Perspective '75" an all-day conference for builders, developers, lenders and realtors, will be held at the Hilton Inn in Miss Bay, Thursday, October 24.

The conference, designed to survey the needs of the building industry in today's troubled market, is being co-sponsored by the Title Insurance and Trust Company and Sanford R. Goodkin Research Corp., Del Mar.

A large turnout for the day-long conference is expected.

"With today's interest rates virtually out of sight we're expecting 'Perspective '75' to draw the serious attention of leaders in the building industry," a Goodkin representative said.
